

David E. Case

Associate

808-523-9000

DCase@Legalhawaii.com

Services

Real Estate Litigation

Construction Law & Litigation

Complex Business Litigation

Admissions

Hawaii

United States District Court for the District of Hawaii

Education

J.D., University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, William S. Richardson
School of Law
Teaching Assistant, Academic Success Program (Real Property I, Constitutional Law I)
Staff Writer, University of Hawaii Law Review

B.A., Sociology, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa
Graduate, Punahou School

Overview

David E. Case is an associate in the firm's litigation department, where he focuses on real estate, construction, business, land use, and complex commercial litigation. A graduate of the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, William S. Richardson School of Law, Mr. Case brings a detail-oriented and analytical approach to his practice.

During law school, Mr. Case honed his legal skills as a Teaching Assistant in the Academic Success Program for Real Property I and Constitutional Law I. He also served as a Staff Writer for the University of Hawaii Law Review, where he developed a strong foundation in legal research and writing.

Prior to pursuing a legal career, Mr. Case worked as a special education teacher with the State of Hawaii Department of Education, demonstrating his commitment to service and his ability to navigate complex challenges.

Experience

Select Results

- Representing clients in real estate and construction disputes involving development rights, zoning, and contract issues.
- Advising businesses on litigation strategies to resolve commercial and land use conflicts.
- Providing counsel on complex commercial litigation involving intricate legal and regulatory frameworks.

- Staff Writer for University of Hawaii Law Review

Affiliations

Professional Associations & Memberships

- Hawaii State Bar Association, Member