Overview

Ivana P. Tran is an associate in the firm's litigation department, where she focuses on business, construction, real estate, condominium, and complex commercial litigation. A graduate of the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, Ms. Tran brings a well-rounded perspective to her practice, combining her legal expertise with prior experience in public utilities and government finance research.

During law school, Ms. Tran earned the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for achieving the highest grade in Restorative Justice. She was also a member of the Native American Moot Court team, where she gained valuable experience in advocacy and legal research. She served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Sabrina S. McKenna at the Hawai'i Supreme Court and the Honorable James C. McWhinnie, temporarily appointed to the First Circuit Court of the State of Hawai'i.

Following her graduation, Ms. Tran completed a clerkship with the Honorable John M. Tonaki at the First Circuit Court of the State of Hawai'i, further honing her litigation skills.

Ms. Tran's dedication to her clients and nuanced understanding of complex legal issues make her a valuable advocate in a wide range of litigation matters.
