Overview

Michael L.W. Robichaux is an associate in the firm's litigation department, where his practice includes construction, real estate, condominium, business, and complex commercial litigation. He brings a wealth of academic and professional experience to his practice, with a strong background in legal scholarship and advocacy.

Michael graduated from the William S. Richardson School of Law in 2025, where he served as a Technical Editor for the University of Hawai'i Law Review, a Teaching Assistant for Torts and Criminal Law, and earned the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for achieving the highest grade in Legal Research.

Following his graduation, Michael completed a clerkship with the Honorable Kevin T. Morikone at the First Circuit Court of the State of Hawai'i, further honing his litigation skills.

Prior to joining LRVW as a full-time associate in 2026, Michael was a summer associate with the firm in 2023 and 2024. Outside of work, Michael is passionate about baseball. He previously coached at Punahou School and currently plays Lawyer's League Softball.
