

Top Law Firm Offers Expanding Career Opportunities

September 22, 2017

Ranked among the top five real estate and construction law firms in Hawaii, Bays Lung Rose Holma is expanding its team of 24 attorneys.

The firm currently has openings for associate attorneys with commercial litigation experience, strong research skills and superior writing ability.

“Hawaii offers exciting possibilities for attorneys interested in building a litigation career,” said Managing Partner Karin Holma. “The economy is robust. The recent upswing in real estate and construction is creating interesting and challenging work. Our team is growing. We are interested in recruiting the strongest candidates who want to live and practice law and litigation in Hawaii.”
